ABOUT POIROT AND ME:

As he films his final episode, actor David Suchet recalls his experience of playing Agatha Christie's world-famous detective, Hercule Poirot, for almost a quarter of a century...

Hercule Poirot, with his distinctive moustache and fastidious ways, is one of Agatha Christie's finest creations, and one of the world's best-loved detectives.

Through the television series 'Agatha Christie's Poirot', David Suchet has become inextricably linked with the 'little Belgian', a man whom he has grown to love dearly through an intimate relationship lasting more than 20 years.

In Poirot And Me, he shares his many memories of creating this iconic television series and reflects on what the brilliant, eccentric detective has come to mean to him.

ABOUT THE NIV BIBLE:

Ever since he became a Christian at the age of forty, it has been Poirot actor David Suchet's dream to make an audio recording of the whole Bible. In between filming the final episodes of Poirot, David Suchet spent over 200 hours in the recording studio to create the very first full-length audio version of the NIV Bible spoken by a single British actor.

David Suchet was born and grew up in London. He trained at LAMDA and has had a long and successful career as a character actor, on television, film and on the stage. He is married with two grown-up children.
